Song of the Week: Jack and Jill

Unit being covered: Reading- Alphabet; Math- Patterning; Social Studies- Classroom Routines; Religion- God created the world.

Upcoming Events: Thursday, 9/8- Back to School Night

Extra Notes: I hope everyone had a fun and restful Labor Day weekend. We are really getting into the swing of things this week. We will begin going to music, PE and computer lab. Please send your student to school on Monday and Wednesday in shoes they can run and play in as we go to PE those days.

We are starting to go over the alphabet in reading. I will cover one letter a day until we have covered them all. I do expect that all the children will know the letter names, upper and lower case, with the sounds by Christmas. After that I will begin working in earnest on sight words.

In math we will begin covering patterns and positional words. Please take a look at the work that comes home each night so you know what we are working on.

Thursday night is Back to School Night. There will be a Code of Conduct meeting at 6:00 in the gym. You need this if you want to work in the classroom or drive on field trips. Then we will have a quick meeting at 6:30 and then move out to the classrooms to meet your teachers. I hope you will all be able to come that night.

The weather is going to be very hot this week. Please dress your student in layers- a light jacket for morning recess and then shorts for the hot afternoon. Also, please feel free to send a water bottle with a pop-up top to leave at their table. No juice or pop, please. They need lots of water and they can then get a drink when they need it.

I am sending home a copy of Family Times. This is not homework yet. It is just so you know what we are working on in reading this week. It will be homework when we begin in October.

If I have forgotten anything please let me know.

Blessings, Mrs. Urbaniak
