

Historical Fiction

Name: _____ Due Date: _____

Title: _____

Author: _____ Number of Pages _____

Directions: Choose and circle 5 of the questions listed below. Write a paragraph (at least 5 sentences) for each question. Number your paragraphs to match the questions you chose.

In each paragraph:

1. Give specific examples from the book to answer the question.
 2. If possible, give examples from your life to help explain your answer.
- Attach your paper to this sheet.

1. Describe the parts of this story that are true (time, place, characters). Give examples from the book that talk about these parts.	2. What kinds of problems does the main character have in this story? Make connections to your experience.	3. Compare yourself to the main character. What is the same? What is different? Give examples from the book and your life.	4. Create 5 questions that tell what else you would like to know about this time period or this character.
5. What do you think the author wanted you to be thinking about when you finished this book? Explain with examples from the book.	6. Tell about 5 important events that happened in this story. Explain how they affected the characters.	7. Why was this event or character important in real history? How did it affect life today?	8. Tell what you knew about this character or time period before you read the book.
9. What grabbed your attention or made you choose this book? How did the author keep you interested?	10. Choose 5 new or interesting words you found in this book. Use them in sentences of your own. (Underline the new words)	11. Tell 5 facts about the place where this story happened. You may use an encyclopedia to help you if you need it.	12. Write a 5 sentence sequel to this story. Choose one character and tell what you think will happen next to them.

Parent Review

- _____ I have talked to my child about his/her book and agree that he/she has read the book and understands it reasonably well.
- _____ I have reviewed book report instructions with my child and have checked to see that the instructions have been followed to the best of his/her ability.
- _____ I have read my child's written book report and helped him/her edit for spelling and punctuation errors.
- _____ As far as I know, my child has not seen a movie about this book.

Parent Signature _____

