

PARENTS RESPONSIBILITIES

GRADE 5

1. Communication -

- Please check and sign assignment notebooks every weekend.
- Students will be instructed to highlight missing assignments at the end of each week in their assignment notebook.
- Missing assignments will only be accepted on the following Monday, after that they will receive a zero in the grade book unless there has been an absence.
- Feel free to add any questions or comments to the assignment notebook or send me a note any time.
- Students will miss recess until the notebook is signed each week.
- I will post updates of our subject area focus or any major upcoming projects or events on our webpage.
- I am always available by e-mail or phone. (sharrell@stmaryspokane.org, 924-4300ext. 221).

2. Book Reports -

- Please take a few minutes to discuss the book with you child
- Check their work for appropriate answers and proper punctuation, spelling and capitalization.
- They also earn 5 points on their book report if you fill out the parent section.
- Due dates will be posted in assignment notebooks.

3. Daily/Weekly Homework -

- A Spelling/Vocabulary packet will be sent home on Friday (or the last school day of the week). These packets will be due on the following Wednesday.
- During the week, there will also be one or two daily assignments (nothing extra on weekends) which are always due the next day. Please check assignment notebooks for these daily assignments.

4. Test Preparation -

- I will send home review sheets or refer students to specific information for test review at least 2 days before the test.
- Please help your child study the information to help build study skills.
- Upcoming tests and projects will be written in assignment notebooks that you sign every week. Help your child use this tool to plan for study time.
