

Realistic Fiction

Name: _____ Due Date: _____

Title: _____

Author: _____ Number of Pages _____

Directions: Choose and circle 5 of the questions listed below. Write a paragraph (at least 5 sentences) for each question. Number your paragraphs to match the questions you chose.

In each paragraph:

1. Give specific examples from the book to answer the question.
 2. If possible, give examples from your life to help explain your answer.
- Attach your paper to this sheet.

1. Does this story remind you of another story you've read or heard? Give examples of things that are the same.	2. Describe the personalities of at least 3 characters. Explain how they fit into the story.	3. Describe something in the story that you could really picture in your head. Give some examples of how the author described it.	4. What was the "hook" that made you choose this book? How did the author continue to hold your interest? Give examples from the book.
5. Have you had any experiences similar to the characters in the book? Describe your experience.	6. Summarize the story in only 5 sentences.	7. Did you know how the story would end? Did you like the ending? Why or why not?	8. Is there something special about the way this author writes? Give some examples of what you liked.
9. Explain in 5 sentences an different way this story might have ended.	10. Find 5 great action verbs used in this book. Create 5 sentences of your own using those words. (Underline the new words you chose)	11. What was the biggest problem in this story? How was the problem solved? Make a connection to your life.	12. Could this story really happen in your life? Explain why or why not.

Parent Review

- _____ I have talked to my child about his/her book and agree that he/she has read the book and understands it reasonably well.
- _____ I have reviewed book report instructions with my child and have checked to see that the instructions have been followed to the best of his/her ability.
- _____ I have read my child's written book report and helped him/her edit for spelling and punctuation errors.
- _____ As far as I know, my child has not seen a movie about this book.

Parent Signature _____

